Dear Potential McKinley Supporter:

Please join thousands of caring individuals and corporations in support of enrichment programs for children in neighborhood public schools. We are writing to ask you to make a donation from your business to be used as a silent auction or raffle prize at DogFest 2012. With your help, every penny raised will go to support academic and enrichment programs for more than 350 children at McKinley Elementary, a small public school in the center of San Francisco.

On Saturday, April 14, 2012, the famed author of the Lemony Snicket series, Daniel Handler, will entertain thousands of attendees as the Master of Ceremony. The event will include dog competitions throughout the day, family activities and a fabulous silent auction with a wide selection of goods and services. The festival will be held at Duboce Park, a public space that serves adults, dog lovers and kids alike.

We are proud of the achievements of our school and its families, but with the continued State budget cuts to education, your help and support has become more vital than ever. Remember, all donations are tax deductible.

If you have any questions or would like to donate something which requires pick-up, please contact, Lhesa Green, at 415-314-9023. I am including a self-addressed stamped envelope for your convenience.

Sincerely,

Lhesa Green
5th grade McKinley Parent , PTA and
DogFest 2012 Auction Committee member
